Part V

State Law Information

This section is to make you aware that Texas state laws exist that offer additional clarification of what a homeowner may or may not do on their property. Since we cannot change this document anytime laws are added or amended, the laws allow DVCA to create and maintain General and Supplemental policies to describe what is allowed, based on these laws. These laws may supersede any language pertinent to a particular section but will not void that section or this document. The general intent is to protect a homeowner when making change that the state has defined acceptable, such as, but not limited to solar panels, rain barrels, xeriscaping, political displays, flags, etc., while allowing DVCA to have parameters to protect the general community. These policies must be posted on the community website and available to all homeowners.
